

Natural Magic Eco-Herbal Skin Care To Be Featured In Golden Globes Gift Bags

Partners with Secret Room Events to Include Natural and Organic Skin Care Products at Exclusive Golden Globes Event on January 14

January 12, San Francisco -- California based Natural Magic announced today that its' unique herbal skin care line will feature in VIP gift bags at exclusive Golden Globes events. The company is working with red carpet experts Secret Room Events, known throughout Hollywood for producing unique events that are attended by nominees, presenters, celebrities, stylists, and media. Proceeds from the event went to African Millennium Foundation Empowering the Powerless and Venice Arts.

Founder Yvette Dellanini Ward states "In the last few years there has been more publicity about the questionable safety of cosmetic ingredients. This has lead to an increased demand for skin care products that are safe for our environment and free of potentially harmful chemicals." Natural Magic Eco-Herbal products are currently used in salons/spas, are available online, and have also become popular with celebrities, including Renee Zellweger who has been a repeat customer. Consumers and beauty professionals can check out Ward's eco-friendly lifestyle tips or visit www.nmechoherbal.com

The new formulation of natural and organic herbal skin care has drawn rave reviews from users. Linda Marie Scholz comments "The new and improved Natural Magic products are divine! Love my skin and the products help me hide my age!" Silvia Young notes that she "first became interested in Natural Magic because it's eco-friendly and doesn't have harsh chemicals" and that it "has proven to be very nourishing for sensitive skin."
